SUNDAY 8/17/25

TIME	TITLE	GENRE
------	-------	-------

The early days of World War II are chronicled, both from the point of view of the many naval vessels on both sides and from the central headquarters of the British, where the search for the super battleship was controlled. Shot in a semi-documentary style, the sinking of the Bismarck is chronicled as one of the most famous battles in the entire history of naval warfare. The film covers every side in the hunt for the powerful German warship that inflicted terror on the high seas for eight days. Acclaimed for it's honest portrayl, the story and combat are rendered as faithfully as possible to C.S. Forester's novel.

Featuring: Kenneth More, Dana Wynter
